

Saint Gabrielle Street & Company / Audience Testimonials

“Brian Hamlin is phenomenal!! He spoke to our students with such enthusiasm and clarity. Our students were both inspired and motivated by what they heard. His magnetism caused the students to leave with a transformed mindset and purpose. I believe Brian inspired something special inside them that was lying dormant. I would highly recommend him as a motivational speaker to our youths today.”

“The messages and ideas that Saint Gabrielle Street & Company are sharing with the world are as ancient as time itself. They are not new. What’s new is the style, energy and swagger of Brian Hamlin. His approach to engaging a generation is one that’s not only inspiring and effective, but also authentic. People walk away from his workshop and seminars felling like that they are institutions of change!”

“Words can't express the amazing experience I had seeing Everyday Angel. Life changing impact! The world needs to see this amazing and life changing expression of hope, courage and perseverance. I cried from the start because I could relate because of my own life's testimony. The young, the old and all those in the middle should experience this insight into a life of never giving up and never, ever, ever stop believing. I cried, I laughed, was inspired, received confirmation. I could go on, but one thing for sure, is that I was encouraged and excited to continue to live the of an every day angel. We have to take the good news to them because they are not always going to come to get the message.

PLEASE keep me informed of your next show, my 15 year old needs to see this. I believe he will be changed forever! This is exactly what they need. The expression outside of what we normally would see in a way they can relate to. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU. Please let me know how I can assist you in getting the word out about what you are doing!!!”

“The Saint Gabrielle Street & Co's show is breathtaking! The mixture of music, theater, inspirational speaking and dance brings the crowd in for a roller coaster ride from start to finish! During a time when people are looking for inspiration and avenues to channel their energy The Saint Gabrielle Street focus and theme of ‘Why walk, when you were born to fly’ is built to capture that energy and point it in the right direction. We need to hear more from Saint Gabrielle Street & Co!”

“I have a 15-year-background in motivational and inspirational speaking and presentations. I blend my reading and writing workshops for teachers, parents, and children with all forms of inspirational and motivational material. I have studied the world's most prominent motivational speakers and read their books and programs. Those who say there is nothing new under the sun have not seen the Everyday Angel performance created by Brian Hamlin and St. Gabrielle Street & Company. Hamlin infuses his inspirational performances with music, spoken word, and acting based on the drama of real life events. He offers a unique and creative brand of motivation and inspiration that is perfectly suited for 21st century audiences and challenges. Whether young or mature, you will moved and amazed. I count it a blessing to have been among those who have witnessed Everyday Angel.”

“Brian Hamlin has provided motivational sessions to our collegiate summer baseball players. I will just say that he has a knack for grabbing your attention and capturing your positive spirit. Our players were so impressed and in tune with his speech that all 25 of them shook his hand and thanked him at the end of his presentation. A job well done and look forward to collaborating with Brian in the very near future!”
